

6516207849.txt

i pay for the services that i recieve from xm radio it like subscribing to dish tv you get what you pay for if the regular fm and am stations want to keep their listeners then they had best get a format that will keep their interest this is still free enterprise and they have no buisness going to the government crying for help from the big bad boys on the block